EXPLORING LOFOTEN ISLANDS

SVOLVÆR, NORWAY

It’s easy to envision being at the helm of a Viking warship as you approach the jagged mountains reaching into the blue sky on the northern coast of Norway. You’ll be amazed by the deep fjords and the way they plunge into sheltered bays and windswept beaches. Easily explore the exceptionally photogenic fishing villages across the archipelago. Add to your experience by learning about the far reaches of Viking culture at a captivating museum called Lofotr. KAYAK A CALM ICELANDIC FJORD

ISAFJORDUR, ICELAND

Few places offer the dazzling splendour of Isafjordur, where steep mountains rise dramatically above the serene waters of Skutulsfjordur. And few experiences can match absorbing such Icelandic majesty in a kayak. On this sublime excursion, you'll gently float beneath the soaring peaks on both sides of the fjord, perhaps spotting a seal or whale, gently paddling the memory of a lifetime. Afterwards, walk the narrow streets of Isafjordur's Old Town, full of simple wooden houses from the 18th century, pausing to peruse its assorted boutiques, craft stores and art galleries. Celebrate your kayaking adventure at one of Isafjordur's eclectic restaurants.

There is something especially magical about Norway's landscapes and this particular voyage adds Iceland's 'ice and fire' for even more drama. Sailing northwards from England's south coast, you will enjoy a relaxing day at sea before Kristiansand appears on the horizon. Offering a fantastic introduction to Norway's charms, you can explore its lovely old town, Posebyn, and Bergen's colourful merchant houses the very next day. Iceland's curiosities then take centre stage, and from gushing waterfalls to whale-watching and kayaking, there are plenty of exhilarating experiences to choose from.

MEDIEVAL VISBY
VISBY, SWEDEN

Discover Gotland's 'Town of Roses and Ruins'. The ancient capital city of Sweden's favourite getaway island, Visby, swashbuckled its way through the Viking Age and flourished as a sea trade powerhouse during the Middle Ages. Today, it still remains one of the world's best-preserved fortified cities – with the coveted UNESCO World Heritage designation to prove it. You'll depart the pier for a panoramic orientation spin around town and drive down the coast to cliff-top Höglint to catch stunning views of the Baltic Sea and Visby's 13th-century walls and towers. In the heart of the city, a stroll through Visby's botanical garden will provide the charm, while an hour-long guided walk through Dalmansporten gate and into the narrow, winding streets of the medieval district will provide the fascination.

SKYWALK IN THE FOREST

PUNTARENAS, COSTA RICA

Walk high above the rainforest floor on the Skywalk, a series of suspended cable bridges in the tree canopy that present a unique perspective of the surrounding ecosystem. Different animals inhabit different levels of the forest, and you can expect to see monkeys scurrying among the treetops and species of birds such as toucans, motmots and trogons. Even if trogons aren't present, you will likely observe their nests in the cavities of dead trees. Chances are, you will also spot mammals such as coatis, agoutis and kinkajous moving about on the forest floor below. Along the way, the guide will provide enlightening commentary. Afterwards, enjoy free time to browse the shops in Santa Lucía village.
